54 Students Make Grade For Honors

Fifty-four students made the first semester honor roll, according to official word from the Dean of Students.

Heading the list are juniors Bruce Bergquist and David Grube with 4.0 averages. Of the 54 honor students, 17 are freshmen, 16 sophomores, 12 juniors and nine seniors.

The honor roll includes students having grade points of 3.5 or above.

Freshmen listed on the honor roll are Carol Stier, Shirley Rachut, Edwin Reinking, Marcia Buch, Judith Seffer, Donald

Jepsen

Goetz

Simonson, Joan Kreiter, Sharon Leistikow, Eric Meisgeier, Vivian Johnson, Loretta Bahnsen, Oline Bjonerud, Myrna Boyken, Martha Enser, David Garrels, Nancy Gaylor and Karen Hartwig.

Heuer

Nimtz

lene Nimtz, Judy Holtz and Thelma Meisner.

Juniors are Paul Ahrens, Mary Heuer, Frederick Mai, June Marolf, Catherine Carr, Linda Mugridge, Deanna Stob, Robert Beard, Grace Jahn and Richard Jepsen.

Seniors are Janice Huggans, Eunice Keller, Grayce Pumfrey, Mary Zellmer, Deloris Rieck, Carolyn Schardt, James Eissinger, Dean Engbrecht and Ronald Freimark.

Two At Meeting

Dr. John Chellevoid, dean of faculty, and Dr. Herbert Max, head of Wartburg's Education Department, attended a meeting of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education held in Chicago Feb. 10-13.

'Coins' To Flicker

"Three Coins in a Fountain" will be shown at 7:30 tonight in the Little Theater, according to senior Nolan Cramer. Admission is 25 cents. A Three Stooges short feature is also programmed.

PUBLIC RELATIONS Director Norm Fintel and Business Manager Herb Engelbrecht examine materials for the 13th annual Brotherhood Institute. The event will be held here Tuesday.

500 MEN EXPECTED

13th Brotherhood Institute Slated On Campus Tuesday

Approximately five hundred people are expected to attend the 13th annual Brotherhood Institute here Tuesday, according to Herb Engelbrecht, Institute chairman.

Dr. Raymond M. Olson, newly elected stewardship secretary of The American Lutheran Church, will speak to the Institute and the Wartburg Student Body at 10 a.m. convocation.

A former Evangelical Lutheran Church parish minister, Dr. Olson has served on the faculty of Waldorf College, Forest City. He is a charter member of the Joint Union Committee for The American Lutheran Church.

The afternoon agenda includes a concert by the Wartburg Band, an address by Al Doerring, Brotherhood director of The American Lutheran Church, and a tea for ladies, sponsored by the Wartburg Woman's Club.

Those attending the Institute will be guests of Wartburg at the basketball game with Dubuque at 7:30 p.m. in Knights Gymnasium. The Knights have never lost a game played before the Institute, according to Engelbrecht.

The Institute was originated by Dr. A. E. Haefner of the Wartburg Language Department and has developed through the years.

Mass H.S. Choir To Sing Tonight

A mass choir concert at 8 tonight in Knights Gym will climax the High School Choral Festival here today.

Approximately five hundred students from 11 high schools are on campus for the clinic. Dr. Daniel Moe, director of choral activities at the University of Denver, is directing the program assisted by Wartburg music faculty members.

At tonight's concert each choir will sing one number, and the groups together will present five selections.

Last Artist Series Presents Chorale

The Robert Shaw Chorale and Orchestra, appearing here Monday at 8 p.m. in Knights Gym for the final Artist Series program of the year, is shattering precedent.

On its 12th concert tour, the chorale will present one of music's mightiest masterpieces, the "B Minor Mass" of Johann Sebastian Bach, for the first time taken on tour.

Applications Due For Scholarships

Applications for scholarships must be turned in to the dean of women's office by Monday, according to Florence Hertlein, dean of women.

Scholarship application blanks have been available since Feb. 1 and only those who fill them out will be considered for scholarships.

Thirty-eight applications have been received, according to Mrs. Hertlein. A total of 90 scholarships are available in the form of 60 class scholarships and 30 individual scholarships.

Govt. Committees Increase Numbers

Additions have been made to several student-faculty committees by the executive committee of the Student Senate, according to Norm Litzner, Student Body president.

Sophomores Bill Goetz and Dallas Johnson and junior Tom Christensen have been appointed to the Academic Life Committee. Harlan Stubeit, junior; Mary Markle, sophomore; and Juli Jahr, freshman, will serve on the Student Welfare Committee. Junior Bob Boettcher has been added to Social Activities.

Chapel Committee additions are Marianna Dirks, sophomore; Dave Doerring, junior; and Jan Huggans, senior. Al Bowman, senior, has been made chairman of the Constitutions Committee, and Roger Schneider has been named to Public Relations.

Shaw, well-known to millions by his best-selling recordings and annual concert tours, has augmented his forces to a total of 70 performers for this undertaking.

Why program the mammoth work for a concert tour?

"In the first place, because, like Mount Everest to its climbers, 'It is there.' That it is undoubtedly one of the very few, very great achievements of the human mind and heart is reason enough to take it on tour," explained Shaw in a recent press-release.

'Has Unique Chance'

Shaw also believes that in spite of the difficulties of touring with a work of this character and dimension, the professional concert organization has a unique chance to achieve the highest technical and emotional expression of this work.

"Most important is the unique access the repetition itself offers through day after day, night after night familiarity," Shaw continued. "This is the stuff of good performances."

Bach himself never heard the Mass performed as a whole in one sitting. The four parts, "Kyrie," "Gloria," "Credo" and "Sanctus," were composed separately over a period of about six years. However, cover-to-cover performance may not have been his intent.

To Be Given In Entirety

The "B Minor Mass" has historically been more honored by discussion than by performance. Not once, for example, in the 117-year history of the New York Philharmonic has America's oldest orchestra ever performed the work in its entirety.

The fabulous Jennie Lind sang in the special choir organized for the first performance of the "B Minor Mass" in London in 1876.

The first American performance didn't take place until 1900, and the locale was Bethlehem, Pa., present seat of one of the nation's most distinguished annual Bach Festivals.

Bach Shows Feeling

One of the foremost Bach scholars, Philipp Spitta, writes, "The 'B Minor Mass' exhibits in the most absolute manner, and on the grandest scale, the deep and intimate feeling of its creator as a Christian and a member of the Church."

Of the great work Robert Shaw himself has said, "Bach conceived the Mass as a testament to and of one great universal faith."

Thirty-Two Join Student Body

Thirty-two new students have enrolled at Wartburg for second semester, according to information obtained from the dean of students' office.

Additions represent transfer students from other colleges in addition to starting freshmen and returning upperclassmen.

Transfer students who are classified as second-semester freshmen include Emery Davis, Shorewood, Wis., who transferred from the University of Wisconsin; Thomas Hann, St. Paul, Minn., who transferred from the University of Minnesota.

Bernard Masker and Tim Tower, both from Tama and both transfers from Coe; Stan Nolte, Waverly, who comes from Iowa State University; and Bette Slater, Isanti, Minn., a transfer from St. Cloud State College.

Students listed as first-semester freshmen include Rosalie Goddard, Charles City; Gail Kroepel, Westchester, Ill.; Richard Lund, Laurens; James Schneider, Thiensville, Wis.; Donald Smith, Tama; Don Stonebraker, Buffalo Center; Harold Webster, Dayton, Ky.; and Roland Platte, Sumner.

In all, these add 14 students to the freshman class for the second semester.

Transfer sophomores are Bonnie Kleiss, Fredericksburg, a transfer from Iowa State University; Joyce Perschke, Center, N.D., who has transferred from Pacific Lutheran in Parkland, Wash.; and Leslie Vrieze, Waverly, a newcomer from Kansas City Junior College.

First semester sophomores who are returnees to Wartburg after at least one semester's absence include Richard Hamre of DeForest, Wis.; Chris Leo, Dubuque; Dwayne Mauer, Dubuque; Thomas Roach, Plainfield; and Max Tjaden of Gowrie.

New students who are classified as second-semester sophomores and who have been here before are Craig Bolin of Shell Rock, Dennis Krominga of Titonka and Charles Matthias of Readlyn.

This makes a total of 11 new sophomores for the second semester.

Only one new junior is listed as a returning student, Don Claggett of Waverly, who worked with the admissions office here during the first semester.

Transfer juniors are Gloria Arnold, Elma, who has attended Luther; Karl Briner, Waverly, a transfer from DePauw University; John Lapitz, Chapin, who transferred from Iowa Falls Junior College; Marlo Schnurstein, Waverly, a transfer from Minneapolis and MacPhail College of Music. A first-semester junior, Edward Schader, Chicago, Ill., has transferred from Wright Junior College in Chicago.

A total of six new juniors has been added for the second semester.

One new senior, Louise Osterbur of Waverly, has been added to the senior class. She is a first-semester senior.

Of the 32 new students, 23 are native Iowans and six of these are from Waverly. Three of the 32 new people are from Wisconsin, two from Minnesota, two from Illinois and one each from North Dakota and Kentucky.

Once More, A Decision

One year past in the land of Wartburg, the Knights and Ladies of the Castle had a great decision to make.

Hitherto, they had annually chosen to give extra of their possessions in order that, through the Lords and Masters of the Castle, they could strengthen a portion of their domain.

But once more the lot was cast in favor of the contribution, and the Head Knights went forward with the project. Sectioned journeymen rode until all the subjects' pledges were bequested to the Lords and Masters.

Still another verdict had to be reached. What did the Knights and Ladies propose to purchase with the endowment?

With due respect to the Lords' and Masters' wishes, the Knights and Ladies elected to beautify the garden within the Castle walls with the greater portion of their subsidy.

And so the landscaping came to pass. The Lords and Masters summoned a Forester. Hither and yon he strode in the garden, inserting the roots of a great variety of saplings, wherever his spade chose to bite the earth.

And there was unrest in the Land of Wartburg. Knights and Ladies frowned and cast uncouth remarks at the growing trees.

So now the year has gone beyond. Once more the Knights and Ladies have met and pledged to add to the domain.

They have yet to call the purpose of the new project. With that time near at hand, they need only to remember the decision of a year past.

Then the Knights and Ladies can select more wisely and bring harmony into the land.

This Place Has Had It

I'm telling you now — Wartburg is a sad imitation of a college. Why, just look at all the things wrong here, things you'd never find at a university or almost any other school, for that matter.

Take convocation, for example. Who ever heard of it outside Wartburg? You go home and talk about it, and your friends lift their eyebrows.

There are only so many things to do during convo, you know. Once you've written your letters and done your studying, you've had it. You might as well be sitting up in the Den for all the good convo does you. I've never yet heard a convo speaker say anything interesting.

Then there's the cafeteria food. Man, I've never had such stringy beef! And the potatoes are always fixed the same — just boiled. Or maybe mashed or fried. Oh, yeah, sometimes we have potatoes in a salad or french fried. You sure would think they could do something about that food.

And the social life here. Oh, sure, they try to have something every weekend, and lots of times there are things to do both Friday and Saturday nights. But then who wants to go to campus movies all the time?

You know what I'm thinking? I think I'll transfer. No kidding, there are just too many things wrong with Wartburg.

Me? What could I do to make things better around here?

Well, personally I don't know about things like that. Let the big wheels take care of any improvement that has to be made. As far as I'm concerned, I've got the catalog from the university right here.

"To be or not to be" may have been the question of Shakespeare, but "What to be" is the question of most college students nowadays.

Anything goes tomorrow. All's fair in love and war, according to the old saying. Translated, that means beware of the day of love (Valentine's Day) in the year of war (Leap Year).

Pessimist: Four-week tests are less than two weeks off.
Optimist: Only 60 more days until Easter vacation.

Dr. Hanson Evaluates Convo Grumbling; Points To Goals And Possible Solutions

By Carol Stier

It is relatively common knowledge on campus that there is considerable disturbance among the students about convocations.

In response to these complaints, the Trumpet has arranged an interview with Dr. Clifford Hanson, head of the Convocations Committee, to secure an authoritative statement concerning plans for the convocation program of the next school year.

Dr. Hanson reported that though the plans for next term's program are not yet definite, there are two primary alternatives under consideration at present: (1) four 20-minute chapel services and (2) two 50-minute convocation periods, one religious and one academic, as the program is now set up. Dr. Hanson feels that the latter plan is the more likely to prevail.

Both plans would specify required attendance at least for the convocation periods. Dr. Hanson feels that it would be futile to plan convo programs on a voluntary attendance basis, since classes are not operated on that plan and because a majority of the students "would tend to sense this freedom and would probably not use it wisely."

Moreover, a voluntary attendance plan for both classes and convo would require higher admission and academic standards, since attendance would depend almost entirely upon the individual's thirst for knowledge. This, in turn, would mean a larger drop-out of students.

Such a decision rests not only upon the faculty but also upon the Board of Regents. Therefore, it is highly improbable that convo will run on a voluntary attendance plan in the near future.

The situation is, however, open to discussion by the students and will require serious thinking. Dr. Hanson cautions, nevertheless, that the decisions should not be based alone upon the advantage of the individual student, but rather upon the good of the entire Student Body with considerable regard for the ultimate results.

He also feels that it would be well for students to keep in mind the purposes of a convocation program as follows: (1) to nurture the students and members of the faculty spiritually; (2) to help fulfill the general academic purposes of Wartburg College; (3) to develop the capacity for critical thinking; (4) to gain a knowledge of the world around us; and (5) to develop aesthetic and moral sensitivities.

"The value does not depend upon the agreement of the listener with the speaker, but rather it lies in the arousing of the critical faculties of the students in such a way as to present a point of view opposite to that of the speaker," said Dr. Hanson.

Some of the serious faults of the students' criticism of convo, he feels, is that their verdict is usually "good, bad, or mediocre." They should rather state particular instances or statements of conflict.

The mature student "will not judge convo on the ability of the speaker to hold the attention of the students, but rather on the ability of the speaker to challenge the students to think," he added.

FLANKED BY books, Dr. Clifford Hanson gives his views on the 'convocation problem.

Cagers Put Down Upset-Minded Central; Face Stiff Test At Buena Vista Tonight

By Don Bathgate

Dave Jensen dropped in two free throws and a lay-up in the final 30 seconds to give Wartburg a 65-59 victory over a fired up Central club here last night.

The win kept the Knights on top of the Iowa Conference. They travel to Storm Lake to face Buena Vista tonight.

The Beavers possess a 7-5 conference record. They climbed into fourth place last week with two victories over Dubuque and Luther at Storm Lake. They have won seven straight at home and can be counted on to give the Knights one of their hardest struggles of the season.

Don Hein had 23 points and 16 rebounds last night to lead the Knights, who had trouble finding the hoop most of the game. Central shot at a 47 percent clip while Wartburg hit 25 out of 81 for 31 percent.

John Carle won scoring honors dropping in 35 points for the Dutchmen to keep his average at better than 27 points a game.

Rebounds Tell Again

Rebounding and ability to hit at the free throw line proved to be the deciding factor for the Knights as they grabbed 51 rebounds to Central's 39. Wartburg really burned the nets at the charity line as they hit 100 per cent, making 15 of 15.

Central's Flying Dutchmen jumped to quick 6-0 lead as the game started, but the Knights fought back and held a 32-26 edge at the end of the first half.

Wartburg held a 10 point lead until midway in the second half when Central moved ahead 51-50 with 3 minutes remaining. The Knights had a 61-59 edge with 30 seconds remaining when Jensen took over and ended all hopes that the Dutchmen may have had for an upset.

Central, while getting only 45 shots the entire game, shot a sparkling 57 per cent the second half.

SPARTANS HERE TUES.

Tuesday night the third place Dubuque Spartans, a team which still has an excellent chance to gain first place in the conference, will come to Wartburg to test coach Ax Bundgaard's revised line-up.

TUTORS FOE THURSDAY

Thursday night the Axmen take a short junket to Cedar Falls to play the ISTC Pantbers. Teachers has been having a mediocre season.

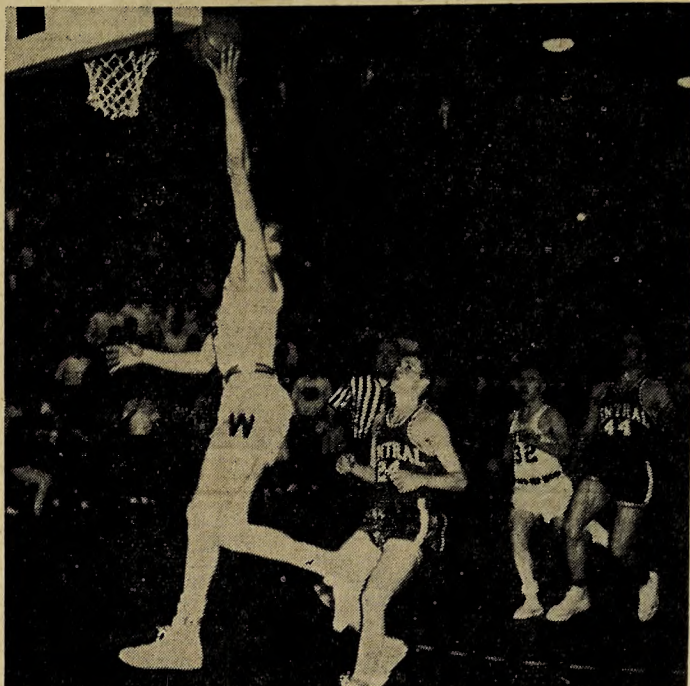

They possess a 9-7 record, but with such stand-out performers as Jim Jackson, Ron LaFrentz and Dean Jensen the Teachers can be counted on to give the Knights a nip and tuck tussle.

Squires End Lay Off; Test Little Beavers

Wartburg Squires end a two-week layoff tonight to tangle with Buena Vista's freshmen. The frosh lost by a single point in a previous encounter.

The freshmen have not played since they faced Luther Jan. 30. But within the next 16 days, they will play six games, three of them next week.

Leading Coach Wendy Lie-mohn's squad in scoring is Dave Brunscheen with a 16.4 average in 10 games. Barry Greene has the second best average, 13.75, but he has played in two fewer games than the others because of an ankle injury. Bob Harken rounds out the big three scorers with 13.1 points per game. Harken's all-around play earned him a promotion to the varsity yesterday.

GUARD DAVE JENSEN, seeing his first action in several weeks after being sidelined with a sprained ankle, drops in a lay-up after pilfering a stray Central pass last night. The basket assured the Knights of a 65-59 win in the closing seconds.

Wartburg Matsters Tackle South Dakota State Today

Wartburg's matmen, with a 2-3-1 record to date, have their work cut out for them this afternoon when they entertain South Dakota State in Knights Gym at 2 p.m.

The Jackrabbits will be looking for their fourth straight dual meet victory and will also be out to avenge a 17-11 defeat at the hands of the Knights last year.

South Dakota handled Nebraska University easily last Saturday, racking up a 21-9 win.

Starting lineup for this afternoon's event will find Wartburg's Lloyd Casey facing Loren Wiesner at 123. John Sternberg will tangle with either Don Brown or John Bartholomew at 130.

Bill Smith is slated to go against Larry Bucknam or Bert Logsdon at 137 while Jim Mueller will be facing Dave Kinney at 147.

Dick Rausenberger will meet Francis Flesner at 157, and Roger Hildebrandt is matched against John Sterner at 167. Al Hassman and Mike Sterner will have it out at 177, with LeRoy Scharnhorst and Frank Kurtenbach meeting in the heavyweight division.

Bad weather caused the postponement of the regularly scheduled meet with Coe College at Cedar Rapids Wednesday night. The meet has been rescheduled for Monday night at 7:30 p.m.

The following night the squad will travel to Decorah for the third meet in four days, where the Knights tangle with Luther College.

Coach Johansen remarked, "Luther is a lot tougher than it was last year. Luther edged Loras earlier in the season."

Lineup for Wartburg is expected to be the same as for the first two meets unless injuries crop up, but Don Smith is a possible starter in the 157-pound division at the Luther meet.

Coach Johansen reports that the squad is still lacking needed experience, but that the freshmen have been showing much improvement.

Knights' next home meet is Feb. 24 at 7:30 p.m. as Upper Iowa invades Knights Gym.

Four Teams Blanked In IM Bowling Action

Sweeps appeared all over the bowling scoreboard last Saturday.

All four contests ended in 3-0 scores. Two of the teams who had won three the previous week dropped three and allowed five teams to be tied for second.

Don Ringgenberg's team was the only repeater as his men again won all three, beating

Bruce Buslaff's team, and took a commanding lead in the league with six points. A point is credited for every game won.

John Anderson, sophomore, with a 334 in two games, led the men, and Priscilla Runge, freshman, knocked over 268 pins in two lines to pace the women.

Cotta, Waverly Nab Top IM Spots

Intramural basketball action last week was light, but it was vital.

In the feature games Grossmann III's previously undefeated pair of teams fell, leaving Cotta in the American and Waverly in the National in undisputed possession of first place.

Both games were played Monday, but there was no action Thursday because of the Communion service. The games were originally scheduled for Feb. 18 but were moved up because Wartburg plays Iowa State Teachers College that night.

In another schedule shift, games scheduled for Feb. 29 were rescheduled for March 1 because of the Upper Iowa game on the former date.

Both Grossmann III teams lost by eight points. Cotta beat Grossmann III 47-39 in the American League, and Waverly won over the other Grossmann III team 55-47 in the National League.

As basketball wanes, intramural wrestling moves in. Those who signed up for wrestling last week will weigh in Feb. 20, according to Larry Niemann, head of the intramural committee, and action will begin soon after.

Tuecke To Head 1960 SB Project By Solon Action

The executive committee of the Student Senate has named John Tuecke, senior, general chairman of this year's Student Body project, according to Norm Litzner, Student Body president.

Chairmen are now being appointed to solicit funds in the housing units. An organizational meeting of the project committee will be held early next week, according to Tuecke. At that time a carnival chairman will be named.

Tuecke Teams Up

Working with Tuecke will be junior Dave Jensen, Owatonna, Minn., as project chairman.

"It will be his responsibility to obtain suggestions from the faculty and administration and to submit a questionnaire to the Student Body as to desired projects," stated Tuecke.

Drive In March

The drive for funds will be held early in March, the week being climaxed with the project carnival, according to Tuecke. A king and queen will be chosen at that event.

"All organizations participate in the carnival by setting up booths or concessions with all proceeds going to the project," said Litzner.

Litzner Explains

Litzner also stated, "For those unfamiliar with the Student Body project, this gives students an opportunity to contribute to a worthy project which will benefit the school as a whole and also the individual student."

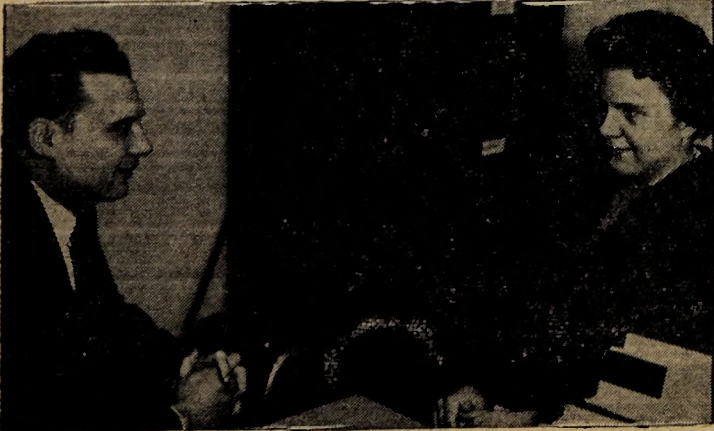

Past Student Body projects include installation of the Hi-Fi system in the Student Union; the purchasing of a public address system for the athletic stadium; the furnishing of the lounge in Centennial Hall; campus landscaping, and the purchasing of cinemascope lens and screen.

Emphasis Week Gone But Not Forgotten

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS Week officially ended yesterday, but its long-term values have yet to meet the time test. According to random Wartburger remarks, however, this year's program deserves a niche at the top of the scale.

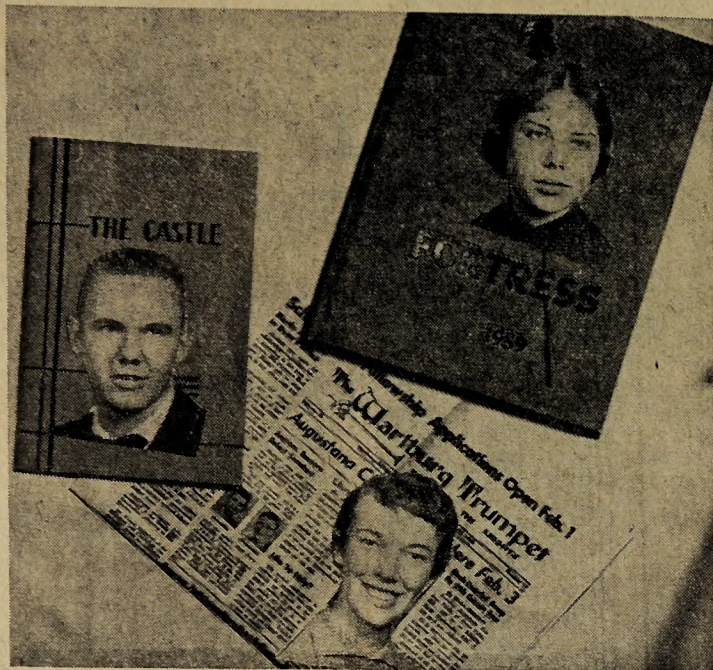

Dr. Elmer Hjortland, speaker Wednesday through Friday, chats with senior Joyce Mueller in the Den (right).

Publications Name Editors

Junior Linda Mugridge will edit next year's Trumpet, sophomore Bonnie Lambert the Fortress and junior Tom Maik the Castle. The Publications Committee chose the editors Tuesday.

Miss Mugridge, a native of Waupun, Wis., is presently Trumpet managing editor. She has worked on the paper three years. In addition, she is president of Alpha Phi Gamma, coeducational honorary journalism fraternity.

Miss Lambert is currently serving as Fortress business manager and is Pi Sigma president. Her home is Milwaukee, Wis.

Maik, from Omro, Wis., is a member of the Castle staff this year. He also is treasurer for the Student Education Association.

Dr. Olson And Film On Convo Docket

Dr. Raymond M. Olson, stewardship secretary of the Brotherhood Institute, will be the main speaker for convocation Tuesday. The Wartburg Choir will contribute music to the program.

Thursday's convocation will consist of a film, "Hidden Treasures," which will present a study of the microscopic world. The film is distributed by the Moody Institute of Science, which specializes in detail and vividness.

Get Maytag Money

Wartburg was among 18 schools receiving $5,267 from Maytag employees in individual contributions matched by the Maytag Company Foundation, Inc., during 1959.

According to Maytag Foundation president, Robert E. Vance, each gift by an employee up to $500 annually is equaled by the foundation. Last year 28 employees made 35 gifts to schools or educational funds of their choice.

Just another reminder that Chi Rho will meet Sunday, Feb. 14, in the Fine Arts Building at 1:30 p.m. As previously stated in this column, the speaker will be a priest from St. Anthony's in Dubuque. The public is also invited to the meeting.

6 Join Bandsmen, Swell Total To 68 School Will Join Scholarship Plan

Six new students have been added to the Wartburg Band this semester, thus raising the total to 68 members.

Linda Beneke, sophomore, is playing flute. Ed Zaiser, junior, has been added to the French horn section. Senior Mary Ellen Wilke is playing clarinet, and Ed Shader, freshman, the cornet. Diane Daggett, sophomore, and Dave Kircherer, freshman, add to the percussion section.

The band is preparing for the spring tour, March 25 through April 3, according to Robert Lee, band director. The tour includes the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

Wartburg will participate in the new United Federal Savings and Loan Association of Des Moines Scholarship program as a member of the Iowa College Foundation. The announcement was made Friday.

Federal each year has awarded four scholarships of $800 each. Three go to students who plan to attend Iowa colleges, and the other goes to an Iowa student planning to attend any college outside Iowa.

Four factors determine the eligibility for the scholarship.
